

Welcome to NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE PARKS

nhstateparks.org

The New Hampshire Division of Parks and Recreation preserves, protects, and stewards New Hampshire's natural, recreational, and historic sites. These diverse and special places of natural and cultural significance are premiere destinations for families and individuals of all ages and abilities, where exploration, adventure, learning, and fun create experiences and memories that last a lifetime.

You'll find a wide variety of natural landscapes in New Hampshire State Parks that define the Granite State with wide open spaces to explore, relax and reconnect with the outdoors. No matter where you are in the state, chances are that one of our 94 State Park properties is never more than a short drive away.

Start your adventure at nhstateparks.org and use our "Park Finder" to pick the adventure that's right for you or try something new! Online advance reservations for camping, day-use areas and attractions are recommended to secure your visit.
