

Discover the Power of Parks Programs

How to Identify - Trees

Trees big and small, come learn and how to identify many trees of New Hampshire and how to use a field guide to aid your explorations.

What's the Forecast?

I think it looks like a duck? Enjoy looking at the clouds? Ever wonder what a seeing a certain kind of cloud means? Come learn how reading the clouds can tell you the forecast.

Story Telling

Enjoy telling stories around the campfire? Join Ranger Olivia at the fire pit to learn some local folklore and light stories to share with your friends around the campfire.

Let's take a dip

We might not be swimming but instead exploring amazing underwater world of pondlife.

Sustainable Camping

Come and expanding your camping skills, and learn how to camp without leaving a trace.

Break it Down

Mushrooms, worms, beetles oh my! What do all of these things have in common? They are all decomposers, let's learn how to break it down like they do.

Nocturnal Adaptations

Expand your senses with a program all about nocturnal animals and how they live their lives at night.

Getting Batty

Bat to Basics, come join an evening hike through Balance Rock trail as we talk about bats and their importance to an ecosystem.

Exploring History

Blast from the past, Pillsbury has a rich history, come join me on a hike as we explore some pieces of the past.

Night Hike

Ever want to try hiking at night, and enjoy the forest a different time of day, come join on hike through the woods. Please bring a flashlight or headlamp but they will not be used unless necessary.

Presented in collaboration with the Student Conservation Association and made possible by financial support from Eversource.

