Tip Top House - Mount Washington State Park
On the summit of Mt. Washington, Route 302, Sargent’s Purchase; Phone: 603-466-3347. A stone hotel built in 1853. As sole summit survivor of the great fire of 1908, it provides a link between the mountain’s past and present and affords a window to its rich history. Believed to be the oldest mountain-top hostelry still in existence in the world.

Wentworth-Coolidge Mansion
375 Little Harbor Road, Portsmouth, NH 03801; Phone: 603-436-6607. Guided tours; National Historic Landmark. Former home of NH’s 1st royal governor, Benning Wentworth, who served from 1741-1767. The 40-room mansion is one of the most outstanding homes remaining of the colonial era. Reflects aristocratic life in Portsmouth in the 1700s.
Sites of Cultural Interest
A. Fort Dearborn,
   Odiorne Point State Park, Rye
B. Wentworth-Coolidge Mansion, Portsmouth
C. Fort Stark, New Castle
D. Fort Constitution, New Castle
E. Daniel Webster Birthplace, Franklin
F. Franklin Pierce Homestead, Hillsborough
G. Governor John Wentworth Historic Site, Wolfeboro
H. Tip Top House, Mt. Washington
I. Robert Frost Farm, Derry
J. Weeks State Park, Lancaster
K. Bear Brook Museum Complex, Bear Brook State Park, Allenstown
L. Taylor Sawmill, Ballard State Forest, Derry

Other Points of Cultural Interest
M. Gwenndolynn Ann Brennick Lochmere Archaeological Area, Belmont
N. Endicott Rock, Weirs Beach
O. Hannah Duston Memorial, Boscawen
P. The Willey House Site, Crawford Notch State Park, Harts Location
Q. Dixville Notch, Dixville Notch State Park, Dixville
R. The Old Patch Place, Rhododendron State Park, Fitzwilliam
S. New Hampshire Marine Memorial, Hampton Beach
T. Bedell Bridge
U. White Island

Please note: Pets are not permitted at state historic sites.

Photos courtesy of Ellen Edersheim