

Rye Harbor State Park

Known as one of the most picturesque harbors in the Northeast, Ragged Neck at Rye Harbor State Park is a peninsula of rocky coastline filled with lush green grass. Surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean with a spectacular backdrop of the Isles of Shoals, Ragged Neck is an earthly paradise! Rye Harbor State Park is the perfect setting for those seeking a unique, isolated location for gatherings of up to 200 people. A smaller pavilion is also available for groups of 40 people or less.

Wedding images courtesy: Deborah Zoe Photography

Surrounded by the sea from three sides, Ragged Neck offers the most breathtaking views on the New Hampshire Seacoast.

